

We Have Passed From Death Unto Life
Knowing God
January 9, 2016

“I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning..”

I John 2:13

What three groups of people are addressed in I John 2:12-14?

Discussion: Why do you think God separates in this way? How are each of us all three?

God addresses fathers, young men, and children.

According to John 17:3 , how do we have eternal life? How does this apply both to the undaved and the saved??

We have eternal life by knowing God and therefore knowing Jesus Christ.

According to Acts 16:31, what must a person do to be saved? Why does God add, “and thy house?”

If one believes on the Lord Jesus Christ he will be saved.

From Paul’s testimony given in II Timothy 1:12, what did he know? What was Paul speaking about and why did this keep him from being ashamed?

Paul knew the one he believed in who is Jesus.

Read Romans 8:14-15. What relationship do we have with God after salvation? Why is this relationship important to knowing God?

We are adopted children of God.

In I John 2:13-14, what is characteristic of the “fathers?” How important is it to be unmoved from what God says is true?

The “fathers” knew Him that was from the beginning.

In II JOHN 7-10, we find the key to identifying religious deceivers. What makes this doctrine so crucial?

Deceivers refuse to believe and proclaim that Jesus Christ came in the flesh.

According to Hebrews 5:11-14, is it possible to know so little of God that a Christian is like a Baby in knowledge? What brings about this state?

A Christian can know so little of God that he is like a baby in need of milk..
